LOCAL AND GENERAL

A Bulletin Want Ad., costing one cent per word per day, covers more ground any day than the most expensive auto.

Thurlo's for a lunch or dinner. Scarf pin has been lost. See ad this issue.

Mrs. Kearns' fresh chutney is now 25c. at all grocery stores.

Paradise of Pacific Fleet number for sale at all newsstands.

Call 361 or 41, day or night, for Mannel K. Richards in his new Franklin automobile.

James T. Taylor, M. Am. Soc. C. E., consulting hydraulic engineer, is now at 511 Stangenwald building.

The cruiser California has a very elaborate silver service, presented by the people of the State through Governor Gillette.

On installments of $5 per month you can purchase a White Family Rotary sewing machine. Benny & Co., Ltd., agents, 1266 Fort St. Phone 488.

Calls of courtesy are about all exchanged now between the officers of the Pacific Fleet and those stationed here and the Territorial officials.

If you want a real delicious glass of cold beer ask at the bar for Prime—the home brew. It is infinitely superior to any beer sold in this territory.

Copies of the Bulletin's Fleet Edition, wrapped ready for mailing, can be procured at this office for five cents. Cost of mailing, three cents.

Mrs. MacGillivray, who brought suit for divorce from her husband a short time ago, was this morning granted an absolute decree on the grounds of cruelty and non-support.

United States District Attorney Breckons is back at his work today. He was confined in his home all day yesterday by reason of a bad shin.

L. L. McCandless, the Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress returned this morning in the Cloudline from Maui. He was accompanied by George Low, his Hawaiian interpreter.

J. J. Combs of the Kailua place who was arrested last week on a charge of selling liquor without a license, was yesterday arrested on another charge of a similar nature. He appeared in the Police Court this morning, but both cases against him were continued.

Chas. K. Notley, president of the Home Rule party, is thinking of enlarging the Kailua hall in order that sleeping apartments may be provided for the island delegates who may come down here on business. At present the delegates are compelled to stay with friends.

The Hilonian yesterday prior to her arrival asked the police by wireless to look out for a couple of men, a steamer passenger and a stowaway, who had passed a suspicious $10 piece to a steward. The police after investigating the matter found that the coin was good, and nothing further will be done.

F. Fielding was arrested this morning on a charge of using threatening language. Wm. Kobelt's allies threat that he would cut his throat and run a knife into him, at the same time holding a knife and a hammer in his hands. The complainant asks that the defendant be placed under a bond to keep the peace.

The police are making a raid on small boys who are peddling picture postcards without a peddler's license, the one peddler who does possess a license having complained about this unfair competition. The Sheriff does not intend to prosecute the boys, but he may take steps against the curio dealers by whom the boys are employed.

It is getting warm and the party leaders are now trying to get the situation.

Pauline further that the Republican delegates to the convention from the Kailua place are now in the Kailua place.

Support Chas. Hustace Jr., and C. A. Long for County Attorney. There are, however, a few people there trying to help out Jno. W. Cather for re-nomination.

W. L. EATON, D. C., Aug. 21. Chas. Hustace Jr., catcher of the Washington baseball team, today won a bet of $10 made with John Hiddle of this city, by performing the unprecedented, though oft-attempted feat of catching a regulation baseball dropped from the top of the Washington monument.

The ball was dropped from a height of 350 feet above the pavement, where Street caught it on the thirteenth attempt, the failures being due to a rather brisk wind which deflected the ball in its course. Street was considerably jarred by the impact of the sphere, but nevertheless caught it in the American League game this afternoon.

Paul Hines, Buck Ewing, Charley Snyder and Malachi Kittridge are a few old-timers that have tried this feat without success. The ball, it is calculated, was traveling at the rate of 135 feet per second when it reached the catcher's hands. Street wore a regulation catcher's mitt.

Men of Fleet To Box Saturday Eve

The Saturday evening card for the Independence Club, of which Paddy Ryan is the matchmaker and official referee and Jack Scully the promoter in chief, announces as its Saturday evening card an 8 to 10-round go between "Gunboat" Smith of the cruiser Pennsylvania and Higgins of the California, the latter the champion of the Pacific Fleet. The bout has yet to receive the approval of the officer in charge of athletics, Lt. Proctor, but as he said that the matter of boxing may be taken up after coal ing operations are over, it is expected that the men will be seen in the ring all right on Saturday evening.

The Monday card is yet to be fixed, but it is expected that some of the first lightweight boys will be signed up to go with Kelly, the classy little boxer from the Coast.

For Saturday night, two preliminaries of six rounds are further announced.

Paddy Ryan will referee all bouts which this club will hold, in its Alakea street stand.

The fact that many of the sailors with the cruisers this time are new men and their capabilities are not fully known, makes it the more difficult to arrange any boxing bouts at all, than was the case with the Atlantic Fleet, in which the men of class were all well known.

A meeting of representatives from the various golf clubs was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at M. McInerney & Co.'s clothing store, for the purpose of electing a secretary, and getting down to business on this proposition. Those present were St. Clair Bledsoe and F. C. Smith from the Haleiwa Golf Club, T. Gill and E. J. Waterman from the Country Club, and H. Halstead and W. C. Wilder from the Honolulu Golf Club.

It is probable that the first play for the Tansan Cup will be at Haleiwa on Sunday.

office and all the other clerical offices necessary, are aboard her, a printing house will be put on board in toto. In fact, she will furnish the men with all the comforts and conveniences of a flagship or a big battleship, which in the nature of things they cannot have on board their own little craft.

Looking After the Destroyers.
Further than this, the Solace carries food, and all needful supplies, has a fine hospital aboard, and fills the functions which the auxiliary fleet does for the Atlantic Armada.

More than this, the matter of having one officer in charge of the whole lot of little craft on the Pacific Coast insures that there will be someone looking carefully after their interests.

All of the destroyers in this bunch here came around the Horn from the Atlantic coast with the "big" Fleet, with the exception of the Preble and Perry. The rest of them make up the whole of the flotilla that came with "Fighting Bob," leaving out the Lawrence, which is now at Mare Island as the flagship of the third division.

Colorado Coming.
It is understood that the cruiser Colorado will follow the others here, arriving about the first of October, when it is expected that the repairs on her will be complete. She will join the others here on their return from Samoa and go back with them to the Coast. She is at present laid up with some sprung plates in her hull, the result of going ashore recently, on the Coast.

Coaling Operations.
The vessels of the first division are being coaled at the Alakea and Naval wharves today. They will shortly be through—perhaps by Saturday noon. The Tennessee, flagship of the second division, is coaling from the Just in at the Oceanic wharf, and the South Dakota is being coaled by the Saturn at the Channel wharf. The destroyers and the Solace are at the Naval and Alakea wharves, being coaled from the wharves themselves. Meanwhile, the California and the Washington are outside in the stream, waiting their turn to come in to the Channel and the Oceanic wharves respectively.

What Destroyers Carry.
The destroyers take at the most 171 tons in their bunkers. This is the highest figure, and some of the smaller type can carry only much smaller amounts. In the course of the trip down here, in which steaming was done in only a part of one day, 73 tons were burned by the Truxtun, which is about the average for them all. However, they did not start out, in some cases, with full bunkers, and so will have to take on more than this for each one here.

Crowds Go to See.
Crowds were on the water front this morning, to see the big cruisers and the destroyers. In spite of the flying coal dust, people wandered all day in the vicinity of the Naval Station, with patriotic devotion to the big "dogs of war." The bands all practiced this morning, lending a touch of gaiety to the scene, which was otherwise rather dingy and altogether smoky.

WATERFRONT NOTES
MAUNA KEA FREIGHT.
A notice on the window of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation office states that the freight intended for the steamer Mauna Kea will be received on Saturday, September 5th. On Monday, if Labor Day, no freight will be received. The perishable goods will be received on Tuesday.

THE MATSON LINE
The MATSON line Hilonian, which was expected to come in earlier than the American-Hawaiian liner Texan, which arrived yesterday morning, was reported last night and on entering the harbor docked at her berth at about 9:30 o'clock. She was delayed in arriving because of the breakdown of the engines. She tried to send a message to the agents but failed. She brought 2000 cases of fruit, having in all 1800 tons of sundry merchandise. She sails at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning, taking a full list of passengers, 1200 tons of sugar and 12,000 cases of canned pineapples. Among those who returned were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sutton, Mrs. Marks and children and Mrs. Ables and family.

ALTHOUGH the Oceanic steamship company's liner Alameda, Captain Dowdell, will not sail for Honolulu until September 8, more than 100 passengers have already taken berths. Among the passengers will be the sharpshooters of the Hawaiian National Guard and a large number of school teachers going back to their blackboards after summer vacation.—Call.

THE STEAMER Claudine arrived at 4:47 o'clock this morning from Maui with a large list of passengers. As freight she brought 24 cases wood, 400 cases barley, 12 cases potatoes, 31 barrels empty bottles, 28 hogs, 193 packages sundries.

LOST.
Wednesday evening, at officers' ball, Moana Hotel, gentleman's gold knot scarf pin, set with diamonds. Liberal reward at Paymaster's office, Naval Station.

BROTHERS' ARRIVAL CELEBRATED TODAY

Today, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the arrival of the Brothers who have had charge of St. Louis College, is being celebrated. This morning the event was commemorated by a special service in the College Chapel, at which Father Francis officiated, and this evening the St. Louis Alumni Association will meet the Brothers at the festive board at a luncheon to be given in the College dining hall.

On September 3, 1883, the first Brothers arrived in the Alameda to take charge of the College, which had then been running for two years under

HEART OF MARYLAND

The last night of the Lumley Company in "Zaza" brought out a good audience at the Orpheum and Miss Thornton in the leading role repeated her success which has been the great feature of the Lumley season. The audience, enthusiastic throughout, gave her a curtain call at the close of the third act.

This play is staged with perfect taste and the whole piece is of the highest order that has ever been seen at the Orpheum. Miss Thornton carries her part in a style that makes the whole play a sermon on human life. Her portrayal of the woman scorned commands the enthusiasm of the audience. She carried them with her and even makes the base critics of Honolulu forget themselves, and shout "Good, good!"

It seems like telling an old story, but it is always true that Honolulu is being offered the best theatrical season by the Lumley Company that it has ever had. With Buhler and Miss Thornton and their excellent support, the Orpheum is staging a line of first-class plays in the hands of artists.

The initial performance of David Belasco's great war drama will be seen tonight. This piece, which was rendered famous by Mrs. Leslie Carter, is of absorbing interest and deals with the endeavor on the part of the rival armies to occupy and hold the town of Charlottesville, Va. A delicate thread of love and romance runs through the play and is the main interest as the lover is on the Union side while his sweetheart, Maryland, is a Confederate. The situation is further complicated by the fact that father and son are arrayed on the opposing sides. The interest never flags from start to finish and the audience feels with the actors. The entire act will be filled with specialties by Miss Brandon and Mr. Taylor as well as the Irish moorchaums, Mae O'Hara and MacNamara, the champion clog dancers who made such a hit at last night's performance. These clever dancers made good from the start and were heartily applauded for their clever heel and toe work.

ADVISES FROM Santa Cruz to the Merchants' Exchange yesterday stated that the barkentine Coronado, which was forty-three days out from Honolulu on her way to San Francisco, had been obliged to put into that harbor in a disabled condition. The cause of the distress of the Coronado was the sprinkling of the seams of her hull during heavy weather, which caused her to spring a leak. Heavily laden with sugar as she was the situation was at one time serious and every effort was put forth by those on board to get her to the coast. Telegraphic instructions were sent yesterday to the tug Relief, which was at Monterey, to proceed to Santa Cruz and tow the leaking vessel to this port.—Chronicle, Aug. 20.

It is reported in London that young Turks will hold a meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, the end of this month to make plans for deposing the Sultan.
